MONDAY..........................MARCH 17.

Col. John C. Fremont.

The Mariposa tract, the absolute ownership of which is vested in Col. Fremont, by a recent decision of the United States Supreme Court, is seventy square miles in extent, and was bought by him in 1845 for $3,000, of Alvarado, an Ex-Governor of California. The New York Herald thus speaks of the present worth of the claim:

Of the value of Col. Fremont's grant it is impossible to speak with definiteness. Its value is apparently almost beyond calculation. Messrs. Palmer, Cook & Co., bankers of San Francisco, own one undivided half interest in it. They have advanced heavily to pay the taxes upon it, and to defray the enormous expenses of the suit. Col. Fremont alone owns the other half; and all those best acquainted with the subject whom I have heard speak upon it, agree in pronouncing him the richest man on the face of the earth.

There is no standard of comparison to enable one to estimate with precision on the immense value of this property. The percentage of earth which has yet been worked, even imperfectly, disturbed at all, is extremely small; it is but a minute beginning compared with what remains in its virgin richness; and yet there are data believed to be reliable, which show that about thirty-five millions of dollars have been already taken from the tract. The facilities for working in this basin up to the present time have been greatly deficient.

The chief want is water; but that is everything. The springs in the mountain amount to nothing, so that the whole basin may be said to be without a drop of water, except what falls into it, directly within its boundaries, from the clouds. Consequently, there are no considerable operations in procuring gold at present, during more than about four months or one-third of the year. Messrs. Palmer, Cook & Co., have projected a canal to bring water to Las Mariposa from San Joaquin river, about fifty-six miles distant. The route has been surveyed, and the cost has been estimated by the engineer at a little under six hundred thousand dollars. The work will be commenced in the spring, and vigorously prosecuted to a speedy completion.—The water will be sold at so much per cent. for a run of ten hours. The profits which the enterprise promises are enormous. You may put the price of the water very low compared with what the miners are willing to pay. You may put the per centage of the yield of gold which is to come to the proprietors very small, and throw away half of it, and yet the income, under the system of management to be introduced, must amount to many millions of dollars per annum.

Some of the front lots in the town of Mariposa already rent nearly as high as they do in San Francisco. But all the settlers are desired to remain. The most generous terms will be offered to them, as well as liberal terms held out to new settlers. Col. Fremont and his associates have sense enough to be content with the vast wealth which a portion will afford them, without greedily and vainly attempting to grasp the whole. They are wisely content to live and let live. For the land owners of California they have fought the great battle—the pioneer case—and won. Now, they go back to smoke the calumet of peace and sit down in good fellowship with the settlers.

Col. Fremont is a native of South Carolina, and is about forty-three years old. He married the eldest daughter of Col. Thomas H. Benton, and has three children, the eldest of whom is now a young lady—the others are sons.

In person, Col. Fremont is slight, but hard and wirey, with unsurpassed and very rarely equaled powers of endurance. He has a commanding presence, and an eye like an eagle's. Many stories are related of his daring and self-sacrifice, which thrill one as they fall in homely phrase from the lips of some of the rude companions of his hazardous adventures. In his manners, Col Fremont is unassuming and unpretending. His official reports contain but meagre outlines of his bold exploits, while the innumerable acts of chivalry—the almost superhuman exertions by which the lives of his companions have been sometimes preserved—the many titles to fame by him so modestly withheld, are preserved only in tradition from the testimony of those who have witnessed them.

He first conquered California. He first hoisted an independent flag upon its soil. He was its first civil and military governor, under the authority of the United States; and I believe if there is a man in the world whose embrace of such large good fortune could be regarded by everybody without awakening one emotion of envy, that man is Col. Fremont.

The Wild Man Again.

A correspondent of the Caddo Gazette, writing under date of the 28th ult., from Paraliffa, Arkansas, on upper Red River, states that the cold during the present winter has been in that region the severest within the memory of man. The rivers were frozen solid, and the plains presented an unbroken sheet of snow. The writer relates the following story of an attempt to capture the famous wild man who has been so often encountered on the borders of Arkansas and Northern Louisiana:

In my travels I met a party from your county in pursuit of a wild man. They had struck his trail at a cane brake bordering on Brant Lake and the Sun Flower Prairie. I learned from one of the party that the dogs ran him to an arm of the lake which was frozen, but not sufficiently strong to bear his weight, which consequently gave way. He had, however, crossed, and the dogs were at fault. One of the party, mounted on a fleet horse, coming up, encouraged the dogs to pursue, but found it impossible to cross with his horse and concluded to follow the lake round until he could ascertain the direction taken by this monster of the forest. On reaching the opposite side of the bend, he was surprised to see something in the lake like a man breaking the ice with his arms, and hastened, under cover of the undergrowth to the spot where he expected him to come out. He concealed himself near the place, when he had a full view of him, until he reached the shore, where he came out and shook himself. He represents him as a stout, athletic man, about six feet four inches in height, completely covered with hair of a brownish cast about four to six inches long. He was well muscled and ran up the bank with the fleetness of a deer.

He says he could have killed him with his gun, but the object of the party being to take him alive, and hearing the horns of his comrades and the howling of the dogs on the opposite bank of the lake, he concluded to ride up and head him, so as to bring him to bay and then secure their prize. So soon, however, as the wild man saw the horse and rider he rushed frantically towards them, and in an instant dragged the hunter to the ground and tore him in the most dreadful manner, scratching out one of his eyes and injuring the other so much that his comrades despair of the recovery of his sight, and biting large pieces out of his shoulders and various parts of his body. The monster then tore off the saddle and bridle from the horse and destroyed them, and holding the horse by the mane, broke a short piece of sapling, and mounting the animal, started at full speed across the plains in the direction of the mountains, guiding the horse with his club. The person left with the wounded man informed me that the party was still in pursuit, having been joined by a band of friendly Indians, and thought that if they could find a place in the mountains not covered with snow, or a canebrake in the vicinity to feed their horses, they might overtake him in a day or two.

Alleged Fraud in Bonded Liquors.—It is estimated in semi-official quarters, that great frauds will soon be made public, which have been perpetrated upon hitherto unsuspecting persons, in the purchase of brandies purporting to be taken from bonded cellars. So complete was the plan, that ten thousands of dollars have undoubtedly been realized to the parties engaged in the swindle. As it appears now, a custom house officer was in collusion with the rogues. This time all the culprits will be caught, if reliable evidence will have any weight.—Courier and Enquirer.

If frauds of this character are perpetrated, as they doubtless are, the effect will be to induce thousands who have occasion to use strong drinks of any kind to purchase Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, which are at least pure, and generally reported to be a perfectly wholesome beverage. There is an immense quantity of vile stuff imported under the name of brandy and other strong drinks. To say that what we drink is imported, is no argument that we are getting a good article. Foreigners buy our whiskey or proof spirits for 40 or 50 cents a gallon, and send it back to us at some three or four dollars a gallon. Some of our most respectable houses are selling brandy at ten cents and a shilling a glass, that never cost the manufacturer over one dollar a gallon. They say that in consequence of the high price of brandy, they are compelled to raise from six to ten or twelve and a half cents a glass. "I buy my liquors in bond, and take them out of custom house," is an expression that is used to denote a pure article; but a custom house guaranty, we see, has become worthless. Wolfe's schiedam schnapps will, under these circumstances, have an increased sale.—N. Y. Leader.

Immense Steamship.—The tendency in steamship architecture is constantly to larger and larger vessels. And with reason, too. The Persia is found to consume less coal according to her tonnage than any of her smaller consorts in the Cunard line. She runs faster than the others, carries more freight and passengers, and requires but a very little larger crew than they. A new steamer is expected this year from England, properly named the Leviathan! Her tonnage will be 22,000! Her estimated draft of water, 30 feet, has given rise to a question about her port of entry here. Portland, in Maine, claims to be alone able to accommodate her, while New Yorkers insist that she will be obliged to bring her freight to the emporium, and say that by going round through Long Island Sound she can take 30 feet of water to Morris's Point, 18 miles from the Battery. Thence her passengers and cargo can be quickly taken by steamboats to the great city.—Alb. Jour.

Something New.—It is proposed by the Buffalonians to hold an International Agricultural Fair, sometime next Fall, in which all Canadians will be invited to compete for the $20,000 in prizes which will be offered.

Moral and Religious.

Convents in America.—According to the American and Foreign Christian Union, the conventual system has taken strong hold upon our soil. It says that lands have been purchased and edifices reared in our cities and rural districts for this object. And, under the direction of Dominicans, Benedictines, Redemptionists, Franciscans, Cistercians, Carmelites, Jesuits, Sisters of Mercy, Sisters of Notre Dame, Sisters of Providence, Ursuline Sisters, the Sisters of St. Joseph, the Ladies of the Sacred Heart, Lorettines, or some other order, 142 of these religious communities are established among us.

Change of Views.—The Stamford Advocate says that the Rev. James Hoyt, late of that place, has become a full believer in the doctrines of modern Spiritualism. It adds that, when in charge of a church there, he warned his people against Spiritualism as a "damnable heresy."

Requirements in the Church of England.—The Church of England Quarterly for January opens with an article on the "Church of the Future," in which the necessity of great, almost radical changes in the Church of England, to adapt it to the wants of modern society, is strongly urged. A larger supply of ministers and of less costly churches, a larger number of superior officers, greater facility in the removal of unfit Ministers, and a revision of the services and doctrinal formulas of the Church, are among the points discussed.

Proposed Protestant Church at Tunis.—The Protestant residents at Tunis contemplate the erection of a church in that city, where, amid a population of two hundred thousand Mohammedans, Jews and Roman Catholics, they are without any place of public worship. They are unable to raise sufficient funds among themselves, but hope for assistance from this country. The British and Swedish Consuls at Tunis have signed an appeal for the object.

A Clerical Brotherhood.—The Staffordshire Advertiser says that six brothers, four of whom are clergymen, recently met together at Harrington to celebrate the birthday of the eldest, who is rector of the parish. The day being Sunday, they all assisted in the performance of divine service in the morning, the rector reading the prayers and litany, another brother preaching the sermon, another reading the communion service, another reading the epistle, and the two lay brothers reading the lessons for the day. The name of the brethren is Blonom, and the occasion was one of peculiar interest.

Images of Saints for Russian Soldiers.—During the last campaign in Russia, more than 60,000 images of saints were sent from St. Petersburgh for the encouragement of the Russian soldiers.

Return of Presbyterians.—The Presbyterian, of Philadelphia, asserts that the doctrinal differences between the Old School and the New School are as great and as many now as they were at the disruption of the church twenty years ago. That paper adds: "In the present state of the churches their reunion would be utter impossibility—a thing not to be thought of or entertained for a moment. On a right basis, we should hail such a reunion as one of the happiest events which could occur; but great changes must take place before such a consummation can be effected."

The Indian War in Oregon and Washington Territories.

A San Francisco correspondent of the Cleveland Herald, gives the following account of the cause of the Indian war. The desire to bleed Uncle Sam, appears to be universal:

In this hasty dispatch, I can only give the outline, which is, that there are now three distinct armies in the field, working at cross purposes. 1st, that of the U. S., which, under the directions of Gen. Wool, is in winter quarters, in a state of masterly inactivity; 2d, that of Gov. Curry, of Oregon; 3d, that of Gov. Stevens, of Washington Territory, who, backed by a large number of admirers, is carrying on the war with the greatest vigor—making, as the wiseacres say, a dash for the Presidency!

Gen. Wool, who has lately returned from the theatre of war, asserts that the difficulties with the Indians have originated with the speculators and tradesmen, who, in the depressed state of affairs in the north, have created a panic, from which to reap the usual financial harvests accruing to hangers-on around the scene of military operations. On the other hand Gov. Curry, anxious for political distinction, and willing to obtain popular favor by creating a market for surplus grain and other articles on hand, is represented as using every exertion to forward the war. At the first signs of hostility he called into the field a large volunteer force (entirely distinct from the regular army,) and at this moment has issued U. S. scrip to the amount of $4,000,000 to carry on the war.

The point at issue is Gen. Wool's refusal to recognize the war as existing at all, and discountenancing the proceedings of the Territorial [illegible] scrip not to be recognized by the General Government, the payment of this immense sum is thrown back upon Oregon. Gen. Wool is vehemently abused by the entire Washington and Oregon Territory press, and at the latest dates Gov. Stevens has made requisition for six companies of volunteers and Gov. Curry for four. The volunteer force now has the field, and is fast forcing the Indians into submission—for war actually exists now—and it is said that Gen. Wool, taking the alarm, is about retracing his steps. As this season advances the whole plan of operations will doubtless be changed. The 9th regiment, Col. Wright, is now stationed at Vancouver. Company B, of the 4th Artillery, under Capt. Ord, arrived yesterday from Fort Vancouver to Benicia; and Company—, of the 9th Infantry, under Lt. Col. Casey, have been recently transported in the steamer Republic to Steilacoom, in Washington Territory. Major Haller has resumed his command at Walla-Walla, and all sorts of rumors are afloat concerning the future movements of volunteers and regulars. There are now about a thousand regulars and two thousand volunteers in the field, and some three thousand well armed savages in the mountains.

The Ohio Farming and Stock Breeding Co.

It will be remembered that in September last, we made mention in the "Ohio Farmer," of a proposition to organize a company under the above title, for the purpose of farming on a large scale, at some suitable point in the West.

We now learn that Dr. Sprague, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Agriculture—who blocked out a plan for such an enterprize, nearly a year since, and submitted it in August and September last, to the gentlemen now composing the company—that from the Illinois State Fair at Chicago, he made a flying visit to Iowa; and in Butler county, 125 miles due west from Dubuque, and some four miles north of the proposed route of the Dubuque and Pacific Railroad, now under construction, made a selection of some eight thousand acres of land for the company, in a body, at Government price. It is made up of rolling prairie, and meadow land, in suitable proportions, well watered with springs and streams, and has in the centre a fine grove of some 200 acres, situated on high ground, overlooking the surrounding country for many miles. Nearly 5,000 acres of this land has been set apart for the main farm, and tenants will be sent on in the Spring to break up a strip, 16 feet wide, around the entire tract, together with sub-divisions, to the extent probably of fifteen to twenty miles, preparatory to hedging. Upon a portion of the land so prepared, grain will be grown the coming season. The company have an abundance of limestone upon the land, in quarries. Stone for building purposes will be taken out next season, and in a year from the coming Spring, our present Secretary at Columbus will take charge of the business of the association, resigning his present post.

At that time, the Company expect to have ready to send West, some 50 or 60 select brood mares, previously bred to Peter Melendy's premium "Champion," to Judge Musgrave's "Gifford Morgan," and to "Flying Cloud." The Company now have several fine mares, a part of which are in foal by the above named horses, upon the farms of Judge Musgrave and Mr. Melendy. A like number of Short-horn cows and heifers, will be sent on at the same time, many of which will be the best selections that can be made. The Superintendent will open a set of books, prepared with a view to keeping a systematic account of operations on the farm; charging the farm with moneys invested in the land; in improvements; breeding stock; implements; labor; and all other investments and expenditures; giving credit for all produce sold and consumed; pasturage, moneys obtained from sale of stock, and (at the expiration of ten years, this being the life-time of the partnership, but which may be renewed at pleasure,) the worth of the land upon closing up the affairs of the Company. An account will also be opened with each breeding animal, when purchased, charging for investment, and keeping from year to year, giving credit for produce sold, or retaining for breeding, from time to time. Next year, the Company will get up two fine Lithographical Plates, showing, in groups, some of their finest brood stock and progeny. No horse stock will be sold, until some fifty young horses have attained sufficient age for service. These will, for six months or more previous to marketing, be thoroughly trained by a good horseman, gaited and matched, and a guarantee for temper and speed furnished, when sold. A like number, or more, will then be turned off each twelve months; together with a drove of fatted bullocks.—Ohio Farmer.

What Proportion of Merchants are Successful.—The Boston Traveller refers to a circular drawn in 1808, by Nathan Appleton, and signed by 100 business men, composing 64 firms then doing business in that city, to show the incorrectness of a popular theory, that few people in a commercial business succeed. Of these signers, whose names are given, the Traveller says, fifty of the one hundred and nine were unsuccessful, and only six of fifty are now living. Fifty-nine of the one hundred and nine may be considered as having been in a greater or less degree, successful in business, as they acquired property and never failed. Of this number, twenty are now living. Thirty-two of the number acquired sufficient property to be independent and comfortable, varying in amounts; but none supposed to exceed one hundred thousand dollars. Thirteen acquired fortunes varying from one to three hundred thousand dollars. Seven acquired fortunes of between three and five hundred thousand dollars. Seven acquired fortunes supposed to be at least one million of dollars, four of whom are now living.

Wonderful Presence of Mind of a Railroad Conductor.

Recently, while the eastern and western trains were out of time at night on the road, one of them was unprovided with a lantern, in which case the conductor went ahead of the train with his own lantern, while the train followed slowly at a distance behind. Unfortunately, his lantern went out just as his car was struck by the noise of the western train rapidly approaching. The night was so dark he could not be seen, and he was not able to raise his voice above the wind and the noise of the passing train, so as to attract the attention of the engineer. His first resort was a club. He seized one and threw it at the locomotive, but the wooden missile glanced off from the engine without making a noise. The train was flashing past. Taking his own lantern, he hurled it at the lantern of the passing locomotive just as it came opposite to him. The crashing glass and the extinguishment of the light startled the engineer. A sharp whistle was heard, the brakes were shut down, and the train stopped. All was safe, when but for the throwing of that lucky lantern, scores might have been killed and wounded. But how stupid and reckless it was for the train to be going on without a lantern.—Scientific American.

The British Church and State Gazette furnishes a list of clergymen who have seats in the House of Lords as lay peers. We give it, as it will probably interest some of our readers:

The Rev. Augustus Edward Hobart, Earl of Buckinghamshire; Rev. Francis North, Earl of Guilford; Rev. Wm. Nevill, Earl of Abergavenny; Rev. William Leonard Addington, Viscount Sidmouth; Rev. F. T. Wykeham Fiennes, Lord Saye and Sele; Rev. James Douglas, Lord Douglas; Right Rev. Robert John, Eden, Lord Auckland; Rev. Henry Wm. Powlett, Lord Bayning; Right Rev. Thomas Plunkett, Lord Plunkett; and the Rev. James Saumarez, Lord de Saumarez. We learn from the same authority that there are also twenty-nine clergymen among the Baronets of England, three among those of Scotland, and six clerical baronets in the Irish Church. In the Scottish peerage there are no clergymen, but in the Irish there are three, according to the Church and State Gazette, besides Lord Auckland, who is an Irish as well as an English baron,—viz: The Very Rev. Henry de Montmorency, Viscount Mountmorris; the Right Rev. Ludlow Tonson, Lord Riversdale; and the Very Rev. Henry Vesey Fitzgerald, Lord Fitzgerald and Vesey. Our contemporary should have added here, Lord Plunkett, Bishop of Tuam. The Irish Primate, Beresford, is also a nobleman, but not a British peer.

Free Use of Other People's Money.

Extract of the Columbus Correspondence of the Cleveland (Ohio) Herald.

The special House Com. have been taking a look at the Dayton Insane Asylum. They find a brick barn there 80 by 30, erected and finished in a style to suit the Trustees and Superintendent, for the snug sum of Three Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-Five Dollars! An elegant carriage belonging to the State, costing $260, and three fine horses also belonging to the State, to give the officials and their families rides on all proper occasions. The luxury of their apartments may be judged of from the following items in Mr. Boyer's bill, not paid yet however:—

2 Tete-a-Tetes	$117 00
2 French Sofas in Plush	130 [illegible]
12 Parlor Chairs, brocatelle	126 85
8 Centre-Tables, marble tops	201 00
1 Marble top Table	[illegible]
1 Arm Chair, in plush	37 00
1 Oval-back Chair, brocatelle	36 00
To which 25 per cent is added	208 75

Mr. Boyer's whole bill for furniture for the Asylum is $2,900 45, and he has charged 50 cents per foot for the plainest kind of benches for patients, his whole charge for this item amounting to $145.

The institution has but about 50 patients.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Record, after relating the facts of the recent Mohammedan persecutions at Aintab, adds: "I have reason to know that when the memorial to the Sultan, from the Paris Conference of all Nations and Churches, was presented to Fuad Pasha, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, on a recent occasion, he read the whole document through with marked attention and strong emotion, (of whatever kind his feelings may have been,) and he stated that the memorial should reach the throne of the Emperor of the Turks. He appeared quite informed of the presentation of similar appeals to other crowned heads. It is a very remarkable fact that such a document should be so presented and so received, since, as they all assert, it amounts to a demand to renounce the fundamental principle of Mahamedanism as based on the Koran and Divine authority."

Death of a Veteran Printer.—Mr. Daniel Bowen died in Philadelphia a few days ago, in the 96th year of his age. He was the oldest publisher and printer in the United States. He published the New Haven Register, in 1774.

Free Trade in Money.—The Canadian Legislative Council have passed to a second reading a bill permitting all parties, excepting banks, to loan money at any rate of interest which may be agreed upon, the same to be recoverable in the courts.

Brevity.—The following is the annual message of the Governor of New Jersey in 1713, and the reply of the Legislature to the same. They are sound on the score of brevity:

Gentlemen:—I am heartily glad to meet you here after so long an absence; and believe you are not sorry to meet me in so good company.

REPLY.

Your Excellency:—It is with the greatest satisfaction we meet your excellency in such good company now, and we hope we shall be favored with it often.

REV. E. H. CHAPIN'S LECTURE.—On last Saturday evening, Metropolitan Hall was densely packed by an appreciative and intelligent audience, to listen to the lecture upon "John Hampden, or, the progress of civil liberty," by the Rev. E. H. Chapin, of New York.

We shall not attempt to give even a sketch of this admirable production, for we are fully conscious that no mere sketch, however well drawn, can do a tithe of justice to the bold and manly thought and splendid imagery for which Dr. Chapin is so justly famed. It was an earnest, truthful and vigorous effort, and the thunders of applause with which the lecturer was constantly interrupted, unerringly told that the whole sympathy of the auditory was with him.

We hope that Dr. Chapin will consent to the publication of this lecture, for there is no better gift he could make to the cause of freedom than that. The press, that he so eloquently eulogizes, would bring the lecturer's noble and stirring appeals in behalf of down-trodden humanity, home to the hearts of many thousands of his countrymen, re-animating them with the true spirit of civil liberty and offering them new and powerful incentives to aid the holy cause with might and main, until it shall finally be completely triumphant. Would there were more writers and speakers in our country like Dr. E. H. Chapin, and would that he might avail himself of the press, to scatter his truly noble efforts broadcast over the land.

CHIRONOMY AND MNEMONICS.—There is, perhaps, nothing more desirable, than a memory possessing the power to recall at will, the events and impressions of the past, for it gives to a man a power to accumulate knowledge and an ability to continually pursue his purpose, that nothing else can.

Mnemonics is designed to assist memory in the exercise of its functions, and to give it that power so invaluable.

On next Monday evening, Mr. W. C. Pike proposes to give a free lecture, illustrated by experiments, in the Session room of the First Presbyterian church, corner of Washington and Clark streets, for the purpose of demonstrating, practically, the utility of these subjects as applied to the acquisition of knowledge. Of the value of Mr. Pike's system we know nothing, but as he comes well recommended by the eastern press, we do not doubt but that his lecture will be good, whatever his auditors may think of the practical utility of his system. As the lecture will be free to the public, time will only be lost, at the most.

Police Intelligence.

Edward Miller was held to bail by Justice Milliken, in the sum of $300, for stealing a lot of copper.

John Ryan was sent before the Grand Jury, on a charge of stealing a lot of bags.

Elizabeth Davidson and her daughter, Mary Davidson, were fined $7 and $3, respectively, for riotous and disorderly conduct, breaking windows, &c. Elizabeth tendered the justice a $50 gold piece for the payment of the above fines and costs, and which being considerably in excess of "His Honor's pile," that functionary had to dispatch an officer to get the thing "broke."

Peter Swanson was afflicted with a drunken fit, which cost him $5 to cure.

David Clark was fined $5 for being a vagrant.

Mrs. Annie C. Warren gave bail on Saturday, to answer to-day to a charge of keeping a house of ill-fame.

A man named Edward Fall, arrested a man named Joseph Rider, for stealing three frozen apples from an open barrel of a large lot exhibited upon the sidewalk for sale. The witness, Fall, swore the apples were not worth three cents, and Rider was discharged.

BRIGGS HOUSE—AN ENLARGEMENT.—We were yesterday shown at the architectural office of Messrs. Van Osdel & Baumann, the plans for the enlargement of the Briggs House, which are to be executed as soon as the weather will permit the commencement of operations.

The Wells street front is to be extended back to the alley, a distance of fifty-eight feet. This will give eighty-three more lodging rooms and a new dining-room fifty-eight by sixty-four feet.

The present dining-room is to be converted into private rooms and a large private dining room. This enlargement will make the building one of the most extensive hotels in the West, eighty by one hundred and eighty feet, and the names of Messrs. Floyd & French are ample assurance that it will be unsurpassed as a delightful home for the traveling world.

Mr. Frederick Letz is the owner of the north thirty-eight feet and Mr. Briggs, the owner of the present Hotel, builds the south or adjoining twenty feet. The improvement will probably be completed sometime during the coming summer.

BELL'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE LECTURE.—On next Tuesday evening, the regular lecture in the course before Judge Bell's Commercial College, will be delivered in Metropolitan Hall, by JOHN C. DORE, Esq., Superintendent of Public Schools. Subject—"Popular Education a guaranty for Republican Institutions."

The well known ability of Mr. Dore, our distinguished townsman, and his thorough and eminently practical knowledge of our public schools, their mission and value, is an ample guaranty that the lecture on Tuesday evening will be one of the most interesting and valuable ever delivered in our city. The subject is one in which every good citizen should feel a deep and abiding interest, and we hope that a full house will greet Mr. Dore on next Tuesday night.

RECORDER'S COURT.—In this court, on Saturday, Edward Miller was convicted of petty larceny and sentenced to the Bridewell for thirty days.

Charles McQuinn pleaded guilty to a charge of petty larceny, and was sentenced to the Bridewell for thirty days.

The Grand Jury returned eight new indictments, of which, three were for larceny, three for riot, one for obtaining money under false pretences, and one for assault—making thirty-eight returned in all. The Jury was then discharged by the Judge and the court adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock.

NEW PLANING MACHINE.—The attention of mechanics and all others interested, is solicited to the advertisement of Hurlburt's Combined Planing, Matching and Re-Sawing Machine, by which a board is planed on both sides, and jointed, and re-sawed for clapboards, box stuff, &c., or planed on one or both sides and matched, at one operation.

The practical working of the machine may be seen for three weeks, at Stewart & Co.'s planing mill, West side, corner of Polk and Canal streets, between the hours of 9 and 12 o'clock A. M., and 3 and 5 o'clock P. M.

Mr. Hurlburt is stopping at the St. Nicholas Hotel

GREEN BAY LINE.—The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser says: "We learn that the steamer Sultana is to be put on the line between Buffalo and Green Bay, with the steamer Michigan, the coming season, and that two good propellers are also to be added. There is no doubt the business will require these, and even more."

THEATRE.—THE MISSES DENIN.—On this evening, Miss Susan and Kate Denin make their first appearance in our city since their return from California. Miss Susan plays Romeo to Miss Kate's Juliet, in Shakespeare's celebrated play, and the after-piece is "Nature and Philosophy." Calvin, Miss Kate, and Eliza, Miss Susan.

These artistes have many admirers in this city, and they will doubtless be welcomed by a full house.

THE SCHOOL MASTER ABROAD.—A letter recently came to the Tribune office, address thus:

LATE PAPERS.—The New York mail has at last got through, after a whole week's delay. Uncle Sam's conveyance bringing papers of the 12th, but Page, of the Tremont House News Depot, furnished us with the Times, Tribune and Herald of the 13th—24 hours ahead of the mail.

Y.; [illegible] Mrs. Arthur W. Hoyt, Mary Hess, Parma, O.; J. Christopher, Indianapolis, Ind.; Henry M. Pomeroy, Black Rock, Buffalo, N. Y.; Henry Lobb, St. Louis, Mo.; Edward M. Y.; Miss Caroline Miller, Boston, Mass.; E. K. Smith, Erie, Pa.; Pat Ward, Buckborn, Pa.; Jas. McCready, Belleville, Ill.; J. H. Mallinson, New Albany, Ind.

We publish the following without authority; but we rely upon the substantial correctness of the report:

Special Meeting of the Loafer's Society.

At a Special meeting of the Loafer's Society, at their rooms, on Friday morning, March 14th, the President on taking his seat, stated that the object of calling the society together at this time, was to take into consideration the tendency and scope of two articles in recent numbers of the Chicago Tribune, the object of which was to have an influence upon a fashion in vogue among the ladies—a fashion in which the members of this body feel a great interest, and which they hope to see carried to a still greater height. He would not make a speech, but hoped that the action of the society would be earnest and decisive.

Mr. HYER thought that the Tribune was engaged in an exceedingly undignified business. He did not see why that paper should wish to abolish a custom that afforded so much delight to a large class of his fellow citizens, and that was the occasion for so many jocose remarks. For his part, he liked the custom that the ladies have adopted of carrying their skirts in their hands. As he passed along the streets, it furnished him with subjects for reflection; and when, as was his usual habit, he stood at the door of his favorite saloon, surrounded by a knot of his friends, he did not conceal the fact that comments upon the sex which he adored, were always in order; and anything that would give these comments piquancy, he was in favor of. Mr. Hyer lighted a cigar and sat down.

Mr. SASS concurred with his friend Hyer, and expressed regret that he was not a subscriber to the Tribune, because he was now deprived of the pleasure of stopping the thing for what it had admitted to its columns. He thought the ladies should be encouraged, and for this purpose he would move the appointment of a committee to confer with the mantua makers, for the purpose of inducing them to continue the fashion as long as possible.

Mr. A LAMODE was of the opinion that the dress makers could do nothing in the premises. He saw that the origin of the fashion was deeper than their art. He would read from a newspaper, which he held in his hand, an extract, showing how fashions arise and decline. He read as follows:

"The Empress Eugenie is said to prevent the French fashion with hoops in her figure; so the ladies of the French Court wear hoops, so the French ladies now wear hoops, so the American ladies wear hoops. It will be seen that they will continue to wear them [illegible] until the reason [illegible] takes place, when the ladies of the French Court will subside, the ladies of the French [illegible] will subside, and American ladies will subside."

Though, in his opinion, the fashion under discussion would not be long popular, he was in favor of seeing as much of the ladies as he could while it lasted; and for that purpose he would use his influence to put a stop to the publication of the articles of which our worthy President complains. He said the Tribune was not much patronized among his associates; but the few "saloons" that did take it should put it out, or he would withdraw his patronage from them.

Mr. BLASE who bears on his face the evidences of his rapid passage through this world, thought that the meeting was making a d—d fuss generally, about nothing. He was no friend of the sex, and he didn't care who knew it; it was a matter of indifference to him how long or short their skirts were, or whether they took them up or let them trail behind. For his part he thought that the great majority of those who seem to be anxious to display their locomotive apparatus would be wiser if they were more chary of their persons, and leave the imagination to make its own pictures. Ocular demonstration destroyed many an illusion of fancy.

Mr. Blase closed amid many expressions of disapprobation, when

Mr. BARNES got the floor and made a speech in which he scored Mr. Blase to the quick. What, he demanded, are we to do if this new fashion is to be put down? Of what will the conversation of the loafers of this city consist if we permit a return of the old condition of things? When we are standing on street corners what will be our amusement? What will become of the object of our double entendres, our indelicate allusions? What business shall we have on the street at all? Sir, said he, my motto is "Excelsior!" I go for——

Here our reporter was discovered taking notes and was forcibly ejected with a reprimand and a threat of personal violence, which, however, was not inflicted. We are confident that the final action of the meeting will transpire, when we shall lay it before the public.

UNPAID LETTERS.—The following unpaid letters were deposited in the Post Office on the 12th instant:

Messrs. Law & Foster, Cherry Valley, Ill; A Comstock & Co., Quincy, Ill; H P Decker, N Y; Patrick Heston, Horricon, Wis; John Armour, Ottawa, Ill; B T Lee, Racine, Wis; H C Wells, South Haven, Mich; James Murray, Belfast, Australia; Luke W Lovering, Boston; James Nungent, Bridgeport, Conn; A S Cunningham, Mendota, Ill; C H Goodman, Hartford, Conn; Mr Keurn, Milwaukee, Wis; M Doolit, West Troy, N Y; Miss Catharine Finagan, Fulton City, Ill.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.

BUFFALO, Feb. 28, 1856.

In selecting articles wanted either for domestic or other purposes, what should be the grand object of choice? Should it be the quantity of what we want, or the price? Who that has any experience in regard to such things, is not ready to say that while he ever wishes to get any article at a fair price, yet the intrinsic excellence of such is the main object of desire. It affords us pleasure to state that we have in our city, a house that is doing a large and increasing business, from the fact that what is on sale there is of a very superior quality. We allude to the establishment of F. S. Pease, wholesale dealer in and manufacturer of oil, No. 61 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y. This oil is from 33 to 50 per cent. cheaper than the Sperm. It does not smoke neither does it grease. It is extensively used on steamers, railroads, in factories and private houses. We find it nightly in our own parlor as clear as sun-light. Such distinguished papers as the Scientific American and Manufacturer's Journal, pronounce it superior to any other for lubricating and burning. Although it has been introduced, and successfully, in a city distinguished for enterprise, yet we hope a paper as prominent as yours, in the "Garden City," will aid in giving increased information relative to the value of what is universally wanted among citizens and families.

PATENT GAS BURNER.—J. Ferrin, agent for C. H. Johnson, would respectfully announce to the citizens of Chicago that he is about to leave this city for St. Louis, and would say that all those who would avail themselves of the opportunity of getting his patent burner, will do him a favor by sending their orders early to the Colby House, and all orders will receive prompt attention. This new invention is believed to surpass all others for burning gas. It purifies the gas, regulates the pressure, prevents blowing and smoking, and burns all the carbon; it gives 25 to 100 per cent. more light from a given quantity of gas, and produces a more steady, soft, and beautiful flame than other burners.

JOB PRINTING.—Railroad men, merchants, mechanics and the public generally are respectfully invited to call at the TRIBUNE Job Rooms and examine specimens of printing done at this office. We do all kinds of printing, and at prices that must please. tf

DIED,

At the Foster House, in this city, on the afternoon of 15th inst., Mr. MORRIS FAIRCHILD, formerly of Norwich, Ct.

At the request of Union Lodge, No. 9, I. O. O. F., the members of the Order are requested to attend the funeral, from the Foster House, at 2 o'clock this (Monday) afternoon.

EXCELSIOR.—In adopting this motto, and under it, urging our claims to the public patronage, we would assure those whose attention it may arrest, that we have placed it at the head of our advertisement, fully impressed with the belief that we are entitled to it, as against the claims of all others. FAILURES.—"A morning paper," says the New York Evening Post, "seems trying to create some panic feeling by a reference to the failures in the dry goods trade, that have been reported in the Independent. The fact is, that every season witnesses more or less of failure; that this season they are much less than usual, but that never before have such occurrences been so fully reported."

FLOUR INSPECTION IN NEW YORK.—The committee appointed last Thursday week to prepare a constitution and bylaws for the government of the New Flour Institution Association, and to determine upon a standard of inspection, to be recognized by the Association, have partially closed their labors—having drawn up their report, and placed it in the hands of the printers. They are to hold a private informal meeting for the revision of the report in a day or two; and it will be ready to lay it before the public at any rate by next Saturday. We have been assured that it is very likely to receive the sanction of the bulk of the Flour trade of New York. We sincerely hope this assurance may not prove deceptive.—[Times, 13th.

New York Horse Market.

The market still continues doing a winter business; that is, making but few sales, and having but a very small stock of horses in market. A good many horses are reported down the Hudson River road, but the most of them appear to be for private account, or but a very small number have come into the stables in twenty-fourth street. Several small lots have lately arrived from Pennsylvania and Ohio, but western horses have not yet generally come forward. Owners are waiting for spring to open. If their stock was here it would not sell while the thermometer is at zero. During some of the pleasant days last week there was some animation in the market; a good many persons were looking at and pricing horses, but held off from buying because they were high, as they thought, too high. From what we have seen, we are inclined to think that asking prices are $15 to $25 a head higher than last spring for good work horses.

It is a very difficult thing to quote the price of horses understandingly; the following, however, will give some idea, particularly where known.

A lot of horses were bought in Richland county, Ohio, by John C. Garrison, of Morris county, N. J., and part of them sold last week at Bull's Head stables as follows: [illegible]

A handsome well-built, strong, bay horse, a gelding, good for city or any kind of farm work, 5 years old and 16 hands high, sold for $225.

A black gelding, 4 years old, 15½ hands high, and not very stout built, but a good work horse for a light plow or wagon, and pretty good looking, sold for $175.

As soon as this awful cold weather gives way to genial spring, we expect to see a lively time in the horse market.—[N. Y. Tribune, 12th.

American and British Iron Market.

PHILADELPHIA, March 7th, 1856.

Foreign intelligence does not change the aspect of the iron market. There is considerable complaint among the British makers of pig and bars, that American orders are neither numerous nor for liberal amounts. Bars of all descriptions are quoted firm—the demand from all sources being sufficient to absorb all the iron that is made—whilst prices of the best Pigs, this year, have not greatly advanced. [illegible] and Glasgow the market is evidently burdened by an increasing stock, and constant failures daily spread [illegible] of which, in London 17,000 tons having been stored [illegible] At New York the supply of Scotch Pig is [illegible] but a small amount can be had; the sales of American foundry iron so far this year's consumption, exceed 30,000 tons, more than for any other similar period; and the orders now on hand of the superior and improving quality of the home made, have induced us to give an early, active and healthy demand, to the exclusion of the foreign. The production is ample and sufficient for the supply of the market.

During the past week in this city the sales of pig amount to 3,000 tons including 60 tons No. 1 at $28; 200 tons No. 2 at $26; 250 tons charcoal and the remainder of anthracite, mostly on private terms.

The prevailing prices of iron are as follows varied according to brand and other circumstances: Foundry Pig Iron No. 1 $27 to $28; No. 2 $25 to $27; Forge Iron $23 to $24; Car Wheel Iron $30 to $33; Malleable Castings $33 to $38; Blooms or Charcoal Blooms $70 to $80; Under $40 to $45; Merchant Bars Refined $70 to $75; common $60; Hoops $65; Sheet $85; Railway Bars $60; Railroad Chairs, cast, 2¼c to 3c; Nails $3.50 [illegible] Spikes, cut, 3¼c [illegible] Gas and Water Pipe, cast, $40 to $45; Boiler Plate, 1st quality, 5c; 2d quality, 4c; American Sheet at $115.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

REVENUE CUTTERS FOR THE LAKES.—The Secretary of the Treasury had sent in a communication to the House of Representatives, recommending that authority be given to construct and equip six revenue cutters of small size, for use on the lakes, and to dispose of the two large cutters now stationed on Lake Erie, and the cost of building which was referred to the Committee of Ways and Means, and ordered to be printed.

VESSEL SALES.—R. K. Winslow has sold the schooner Wm. Case for $16,500, to H. J. Winslow; schooner J. H. Drake for $14,500, to C. D. Rhodes; and his interest, 5-12ths, in the schooner Challenger, for $3,000, to A. J. Everett of Cleveland. The parties purchasing live in Chicago.—[Toledo Blade.

THE ONLY MEDAL AWARDED BY THE JURY OF THE NEW YORK EXHIBITION To English or Foreign Sauce Manufacturers, has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, for their Worcestershire Sauce.

Whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

THE CELEBRITY OF THIS SAUCE HAS extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and is esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach perfectly to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe these qualities have been testified to, by a gentleman who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use. Your Sauce is delectable, and, I think, medicinal. I can with truth say there is nothing to a traveler's luggage so essential to his comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce."

In India also, where it is found at the tables of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession, at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell LEA & PERRINS that their Sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most wholesome Sauce made."

This Sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the universal demand which its excellence has created, has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the name of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the bottle and metallic capsule, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrappers.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Of the Age.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered, in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system; yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor, it has to start. There are no ifs nor ands, hums nor ha's about it, suiting some cases and not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know its effects in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old; to old people of sixty. I have seen poor, puny, wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been costive for years, have taken and been regulated by it. Where the body is sound, it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it. On the contrary when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it. I have likewise an herb, which, when simmered in sweet oil, dissolves Scrofulous swelling of the neck and under the ears.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adult, one table spoonful per day. Children over eight years, desert-spoonful; children from five to eight years, tea-spoonful. As no directions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day.

MR. KENNEDY gives personal attendance in bad cases of Scrofula.

Wholesale Dealers in Chicago.—Brinckerhoff & Penton, J. H. Reed & Co., Day & Baldwin, F. Scammon & Co., Sawyer, Paige & Co., Barclay & Brother.

Price $1. Manufactured by DONALD KENNEDY, 120 Warren Street, Roxbury, Mass.

A liberal discount made to those who buy to sell again. Apothecaries, &c., who would like to act as agents will please send in their orders.

Capitalists will find favorable opportunities of realizing large returns by investing in rapidly improving Western property.

Catalogues will be published from time to time, containing descriptions of property for sale. These will be delivered to applicants, gratis, or forwarded to any part of the country.

Property offered for sale will, for a small sum, be entered in our Catalogue and circulated gratis all over the country.

Buyers of the Illinois Central Rail road Lands can avail themselves of the knowledge and experience of the late Land Agent of the Company to supply the difficulty of making judicious selections.

Particular attention given to the Payment of Taxes, Locating Warrants, Examining Land, and to a General Land Agency business.

To facilitate the sale of lands extensive arrangements are being made with responsible Local Land Agents.
